[2] WAYNE HAMPTON, JR.,)

O R D E R

On December 4, 2012, the court granted defendant Hampton's Motion to Continue Trial (Docket No. 96), conditioned upon the timely filing of waivers of speedy trial by all three remaining defendants (Docket No. 97). Defendant Hampton has filed a waiver of speedy trial (Docket No. 95), and it is anticipated that defendant Ussery will be filing a waiver of speedy trial shortly. Although defendant Hampton's Motion to Continue Trial represented that counsel for defendant McFarland also agreed to the continuance, and that all three counsel agreed to a new trial date of May 21, 2013, defendant McFarland has not filed a waiver of speedy trial, and his counsel has informed chambers that he refuses to execute a waiver of speedy trial. It is therefore ORDERED that the delay between the present speedy trial deadline for defendant McFarland of February 6, 2013 and the presently scheduled trial date of May 21, 2013 is excludable under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), as the ends of justice served by trying all three defendants in this drug conspiracy case together and at a time following government counsel's maternity leave so as to assure continuity of counsel for the government outweigh the best interest of defendant McFarland in a speedy trial.

It is so ORDERED.

ENTER this 7th day of January 2013.
